This little boy, Tamir Rice, was 12 yrs old when he was fatally shot twice by a Cleveland cop while playing with a toy gun at a park.

DOJ opened an investigation in 2015 after a local grand jury failed to indict but quietly shut the investigation down in 2019.

Trump is appealing his loss in Pennsylvania to the 3rd Circuit.

The ONLY issue that Trump/Giuliani can appeal at this stage is Judge Brann's grant of our motion to dismiss. That doesn't get them far in terms of the absurd relief sought -- disenfranchising millions of voters.

Trump's 'observers' at Wisconsin recount are clearly focused on cancelling Black votes in Milwaukee.

> Earlier today, Trump campaign observers objected to every absentee ballot envelope from Ward 5 in the City of Milwaukee & every ballot cast in Ward 1.

Iowa and Arizona are out of ICU beds.

Iowa's governor initially dismissed mask mandates as "feel good" measures but reversed course a few days ago — months too late.

There is no national strategy for confronting the pandemic.

Third Circuit has granted Trump's request for expedited review in PA. This is just review of Judge Brann's grant of the motion to dismiss Trump's case & review of Brann's denial of Trump's request to file a second amended complaint. Even if they were successful, not much achieved any such issues if the Court requests.

7. Appellants request that the Court grant expedited briefing on its appeal from the District Court's decision denying Appellants' Motion to Amend to File a Second Amended Complaint solely on the basis of undue delay after dismissing Appellants' Amended Complaint with prejudice. Appellants will, inter alia, request that this Court reverse denial of the Motion to Amend, direct the District Court to promptly decide it on the merits, decide Appellants' motions regarding discovery (Docs. 118 and 171) and proceed expeditiously to a hearing to enjoin certification of the results of the Presidential Election (or order decertification of already certified) if the Second Amended Complaint is held to state valid claims.

This is FALSE

A citizenship question hasn't appeared on the Census in more than 6 decades

It was added after push by Steve Bannon and Kris Kobach

It's intended to discourage participation among people of color

It was found unconstitutional by a judge in our court challenge

Donald J. Trump

@realDonaldTrump

Can you believe that the Radical Left Democrats want to do our new and very important Census Report without the all important Citizenship Question. Report would be meaningless and a waste of the $Billions (ridiculous) that it costs to put together!

I heard that one of you is planning to vote NO.

"I find this shocking and disgusting."

Choosing not to certify would mean that democracy is dying in Michigan.

It would mean buying into idiotic and unfounded conspiracy theories.

Norman Shinkle suggests Republican poll workers were turned away.

Janice Winfrey shoots this down. She notes that they had Republicans, they actively recruited Republicans and that they eventually had to stop recruiting when they ran out of time to train new people.

She says "in heat of the moment" she didn't realize that audits can't happen before certification. Says she wouldn't have certified.

BREAKING: GSA head, Emily Murphy, has moved to officially begin transition and give president-elect Joe Biden the resources to transition including $6.3 million. Here's her letter.

I have dedicated much of my adult life to public service, and I have always strived to do what is right. Please know that I came to my decision independently, based on the law and available facts. I was never directly or indirectly pressured by any Executive Branch official—including those who work at the White House or GSA—with regard to the substance or timing of my decision. To be clear, I did not receive any direction to delay my determination. I did, however, receive threats online, by phone, and by mail directed at my safety, my family, my staff, and even my pets in an effort to coerce me into making this determination prematurely. Even in the face of thousands of threats, I always remained committed to upholding the law.

Contrary to media reports and insinuations, my decision was not made out of fear or favoritism. Instead, I strongly believe that the statute requires that the GSA Administrator ascertain, not impose, the apparent president-elect. Unfortunately, the statute provides no procedures or standards for this process, so I looked to precedent from prior elections involving legal challenges and incomplete counts. GSA does not dictate the outcome of legal disputes and recounts, nor does it determine whether such proceedings are reasonable or justified. These are issues that the Constitution, federal laws, and state laws leave to the election certification process and decisions by courts of competent jurisdiction. I do not think that an agency charged with improving federal procurement and property management should place itself above the constitutionally-based election process. I strongly urge Congress to consider amendments to the Act.

U.S. General Services Administration
1800 F Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20405-0002

The Honorable Joseph R. Biden, Jr.
Page 2

As you know, the GSA Administrator does not pick or certify the winner of a presidential election. Instead, the GSA Administrator's role under the Act is extremely narrow: to make resources and services available in connection with a presidential transition. As stated, because of recent developments involving legal challenges and certifications of election results, I have determined that you may access the post-election resources and services described in Section 3 of the Act upon request. The actual winner of the presidential election will be determined by the electoral process detailed in the Constitution.

🚨Another loss for Trump in Pennsylvania State Supreme Court.

: Appeal from the Order of the Commonwealth Court entered November 19, 2020 at No. 1162 CD 2020, reversing the Order of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County entered November 16, 2020 at No. GD 20-011654 and remanding

Justice Donohue announces the judgment of the Court, joined by Justices Baer, Todd and Wecht, and files an opinion joined by Justices Baer and Todd

OPINION ANNOUNCING THE JUDGMENT OF THE COURT

JUSTICE DONOHUE DECIDED: November 23, 2020

These appeals present the question of whether the Election Code requires a county board of elections to disqualify mail-in or absentee ballots submitted by qualified electors who signed the declaration on their ballot's outer envelope but did not handwrite their name, their address, and/or a date, where no fraud or irregularity has been alleged. Pursuant to our longstanding jurisprudence, central to the disposition of these appeals is whether the information is made mandatory by the Election Code or whether the inclusion of the information is directory, i.e., a directive from the Legislature that should be followed but the failure to provide the information does not result in invalidation of the ballot.

We are guided by well-established interpretive principles including that where the language of a statute is unambiguous, the language shall be controlling. 1 Pa.C.S. §

BREAKING: Pennsylvania Sec'y of State certifies results of the 2020 election.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 24, 2020

Department of State Certifies Presidential Election Results

Harrisburg, PA – Following certifications of the presidential vote submitted by all 67 counties late Monday, Secretary of State Kathy Boockvar today certified the results of the November 3 election in Pennsylvania for president and vice president of the United States.

Shortly thereafter, as required by federal law, Governor Tom Wolf signed the Certificate of Ascertainment for the slate of electors for Joseph R. Biden as president and Kamala D. Harris as vice president of the United States. The certificate was submitted to the Archivist of the United States.

The Certificate of Ascertainment included the following vote totals:

- Electors for Democratic Party candidates Joseph R. Biden and Kamala D. Harris – 3,458,229
- Electors for Republican Party candidates Donald J. Trump and Michael R. Pence – 3,377,674
- Electors for Libertarian Party candidates Jo Jorgensen and Jeremy Spike Cohen – 79,380

"Today's certification is a testament to the incredible efforts of our local and state election officials, who worked tirelessly to ensure Pennsylvania had a free, fair and accurate process that reflects the will of the voters," said Gov. Wolf.

"We are tremendously grateful to all 67 counties who have been working extremely long hours to ensure that every qualified voter's vote is counted safely and securely. The county election officials and the poll workers are the true heroes of our democracy

@ElectProject

As we near Thanksgiving, my heartfelt thanks to all the election officials who put themselves in danger so that our democracy could continue. My list of election officials who died or fell ill to COVID-19 of the state's June primary.[1] Others in the office were infected, and the office was temporarily closed

- Rexall Burke – a Chicago, Illinois poll worker – died of COVID-19 two weeks after the state's primary election. It is unknown if he contracted the disease at the polling place, but local officials notified poll workers and voters of their potential exposure.[2]
- A Missouri poll worker tested positive for COVID-19 and subsequently died. She did not quarantine, and thereby exposed other poll workers and voters to the coronavirus.[3]

More people were exposed to the virus and fell ill.

- In California, a Tulare County election worker tested positive following the general election, halting vote counting for one day.[4]
- In Colorado, five workers at the county's mail ballot counting facility tested positive following the general election.[5]
- In Florida, an Alachua County poll worker tested positive during the state primary;[6] the Brevard County election office closed an in-person early voting site because when election workers tested positive;[7] two Broward County poll workers tested positive during the presidential primary;[8] and the Okaloosa Supervisor of Elections tested positive, which prompted the closing of the mail election office.[9]
- In Illinois, the Chicago Board of Elections closed their downtown office when an employee tested positive for COVID-19 in the mid-summer;[10] around the same time, the Springville election office closed when one employee tested positive and others showed symptoms.[11]
- In Indiana, the St. Joseph County election office closed following the general election when six election workers tested positive for COVID-19.[12]
- In New Jersey, three election offices reported several employees testing positive, with one hospitalization.[13]
- In New York, the Onondaga County election office was closed following the general election when eight board of elections staffers tested positive;[14] and the Suffolk County election office suspended counting after an employee tested positive.[15]
- In Pennsylvania, following the general election, four Westmoreland County staffers tested positive and two more were waiting results, causing the local office to scramble to find replacements so provisional ballots could be counted in time for certification;[16] and a dozen Philadelphia election workers tested positive following the general election.[17]
- In Tennessee, a Hardin County election worker tested positive, closed in the office following the general election.[18]

This is literally a court filing that landed at the court steps in Minnesota dead on arrival.

Make no mistake, new litigation efforts at this stage are clearly intended to undermine confidence in our democracy.

Minnesota at 80% has highest voter turnout level in the U.S.

58% of Minnesota voters voted by absentee ballot or voted early in person; and 42% of voters turned out on Election Day. Same Day Registration has a huge impact.

Voter turnout disparities are not accidental.

States with Same Day Registration & strong vote by mail systems, often in place for decades, see high voter turnout.

States notorious for #VoterSuppression like TX, MS & TN, states that we SUED during the pandemic, rank dead last.

BREAKING: Supreme Court issues 5-4 order temporarily blocking New York emergency #COVID19 rules that limit attendance at religious services for public health reasons.

ON APPLICATION FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

[November 25, 2020]

JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR, with whom JUSTICE KAGAN joins, dissenting.

Amidst a pandemic that has already claimed over a quarter million American lives, the Court today enjoins one of New York's public health measures aimed at containing the spread of COVID–19 in areas facing the most severe outbreaks. Earlier this year, this Court twice stayed its hand when asked to issue similar extraordinary relief. See South Bay United Pentecostal Church v. Newsom, 590 U. Justice Sotomayor calls out Gorsuch for not wrestling with the actual science driving New York's emergency public health restrictions which make clear the extra danger posed by religious services w/ large groups indoors, in tight proximity, for extended periods of time. #COVID19 similar risks as religious gatherings, but which are treated more leniently under New York's rules (e.g., going to the liquor store or getting a bike repaired). Ante, at 2 (concurring opinion). But JUSTICE GORSUCH does not even try to square his examples with the conditions medical experts tell us facilitate the spread of COVID–19: large groups of people gathering, speaking, and singing in close proximity indoors for extended periods of time. See App. to Brief in Opposition in No. 20A87, pp. 46–51 (declaration of Debra S. Blog, Director of the Div. of Epidemiology, NY Dept. of Health); Brief for the American Medical Association et al.

Justice Sotomayor also calls out the hypocrisy behind the majority's inclination to apply strict scrutiny to NY's public health measures based on statements made by Gov Cuomo while NOT doing so when it came to Trump's statements regarding the motive driving his #MuslimBan.

> Finally, the Diocese points to certain statements by Governor Cuomo as evidence that New York's regulation is impermissibly targeted at religious activity—specifically, at combatting heightened rates of positive COVID–19 cases among New York's Orthodox Jewish community. Application 24. The Diocese suggests that these comments supply "an independent basis for the application of strict scrutiny." Reply Brief in No. 20A87, p. 9. I do not see how. The Governor's comments simply do not warrant an application of strict scrutiny under this Court's precedents. Just a few Terms ago, this Court declined to apply heightened scrutiny to a Presidential Proclamation limiting immigration from Muslim-majority countries, even though President Trump had described the Proclamation as a "Muslim Ban," originally conceived of as a "'total and complete shutdown of Muslims entering the United States until our country's representatives can figure out what is going on.'" Trump v. Hawaii, 585 U. This new Georgia post-election suit filed more than 3 weeks past Election Day has lots of references to Hugo Chavez.

Disgraceful.

Smartmatic software was designed to manipulate Venezuelan elections in favor of dictator Hugo Chavez:

> Smartmatic's electoral technology was called "Sistema de Gestión Electoral" (the "Electoral Management System"). Smartmatic was a pioneer in this area of computing systems. Their system provided for transmission of voting data over the internet to a computerized central tabulating center. The voting machines themselves had a digital display, fingerprint recognition feature to identify the voter, and printed out the voter's ballot. The voter's thumbprint was linked to a computerized record of that voter's identity. Smartmatic created and operated the entire system.
> 7.
> A core requirement of the Smartmatic software design was the software's ability to hide its manipulation of votes from any audit. As the whistleblower explains:
> > Chavez was most insistent that Smartmatic design the system in a way that the system could change the vote of each voter without being detected. He wanted the software itself to function in such a manner that if the voter were to place their thumb print or fingerprint on a scanner, then the thumbprint would be tied to a record of the voter's name and identity as having voted, but that voter would not be tracked to the changed vote. He made it clear that the system would have to be setup to not leave any evidence of the changed vote for a specific voter and that there would be no evidence to show and nothing to contradict that the name or the fingerprint or thumb print was going with a changed vote. Smartmatic agreed to

Yet some groups protested, refusing to keep their distance, marching against travel restrictions — as if measures that governments must impose for the good of their people constitute some kind of political assault on autonomy or personal freedom! Looking to the common good is much more than the sum of what is good for individuals. It means having a regard for all citizens and seeking to respond effectively to the needs of the least fortunate.

It is all too easy for some to take an idea — in this case, for example, personal freedom — and turn it into an ideology, creating a prism through which they judge everything.

As Defendant Intervenors in this baseless Trump lawsuit in PA, we've flagged the cherry-picking of counties home to large numbers of voters of color. Also, important to note that Trump's claims are illegitimate but would also impact down-ballot elections as well.

Such madness.

> And the Campaign's charges are selective. Though Pennsylvanians cast 2.6 million mail-in ballots, the Campaign challenges 1.5 million of them. It cherry-picks votes cast in "Democratic-heavy counties" but not "those in Republican-heavy counties." Second Am. Compl. ¶8. Without compelling evidence of massive fraud, not even alleged here, we can hardly grant such lopsided relief.
> Granting relief would harm millions of Pennsylvania voters too. The Campaign would have us set aside 1.5 million ballots without even alleging fraud. As the deadline to certify votes has already passed, granting relief would disenfranchise those voters or sidestep the expressed will of the people. Tossing out those ballots could disrupt every down-ballot race as well. There is no allegation of fraud (let alone proof) to justify harming those millions of voters as well as other candidates.

Great advocacy by @dale_e_ho in the #SCOTUS today. The Supreme Court must reject the Trump administration's unconstitutional attempt to exclude undocumented people from data used for centuries to allocate Congressional House seats.

> Mark Joseph Stern @mjs_DC
> Now this is great lawyering: The ACLU's @dale_e_ho points out that an 1828 dictionary cited by the government actually demonstrates that "residents"—as understood at the Founding—included immigrants. He then cites the practice of federal marshals conducting the census in 1790.

Georgia is rich with powerful groups that work incredibly hard to reach not-yet-registered voters.

SHAMEFUL that the Secretary of State is launching a thinly-veiled witch-hunt intended to stifle these efforts in advance of the Senate runoff.

One of the witnesses in Sidney Powell's new Michigan lawsuit says in a declaration he thinks there's something fishy about election returns in Edison County, MI. Thing is, there is no Edison County in Michigan.

The data variance favoring Vice President continues to accelerate after 4:30 AM EST on November 4, 2020 and continues until it momentum through November 9, 2020. This abnormality in variance is evident by the unusually steep slope for Vice President Biden in all battleground states on November 4, 2020. A sudden rise in slope is not normal and demonstrates data manipulation by artificial means. For example in PA, President Trump's lead of more than 700,000 count advantage was reduced to less than 300,000 in a few short hours, which does not occur in the real world without an external influence. I conclude that manually feeding more than 400,000 mostly absentee ballots cannot be accomplished in a short time frame (i.e., 2-3 hours) without illegal vote count alteration. In another case for [illegible] County, MI, Vice President Biden received more than 100% of the votes at 5:59 PM EST on November 4, 2020 and again he received 99.61% of the votes at 2:23 PM EST on November 5, 2020. These distributions are cause for concern and indicate fraud.

A reminder that today's certification follows a recount mounted by Trump that focused exclusively on Wisconsin and Dane Counties -- the 2 parts of the state that are home to the largest numbers of Black voters.

Kris Kobach issues desperate renewed request for data on millions of voters. States must resist agenda of #ShamVotingCommission.

Dear Secretary Padilla,

In my capacity as Vice Chair of the Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity, I wrote to you on June 28, 2017, to request publicly available voter registration records. On July 10, 2017, the Commission staff requested that you delay submitting any records until the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia ruled on a motion from the Electronic Privacy Information Center that sought to prevent the Commission from receiving the records. On July 24, 2017, the court denied that motion. In light of that decision in the Commission's favor, I write to renew the June 28 request, as well as to answer questions some States raised about the request's scope and the Commission's intent regarding its use of the registration records. I appreciate the cooperation of chief election officials from more than 30 States who have already responded to the June 28 request and either agreed to provide these publicly available records, or are currently evaluating what specific records they may provide in accordance with their State laws.

Like you, I serve as the chief election official of my State. And like you, ensuring the privacy and security of any non-public voter information is a high priority. My June 28 letter only requested information that is already available to the public under the laws of your State, which is information that States regularly provide to political candidates, journalists, and other interested members of the public. As you know, federal law requires the States to maintain 🚨Trump files Wisconsin recount challenge in Dane County Circuit Court. This frivolous matter is handled by the Troupis Law Office.

James Troupis, the lawyer on this, recently stated that lawyers "wast[e] time and energy on so many things that just do not matter to the court."

Chief Justice Patience Roggensack
Wisconsin Supreme Court
110 East Main Street
Suite 215
Madison, WI 53703

Dear Chief Justice Roggensack: Re: Trump et al v. Evers, et al. (case not assigned (Dane County) Trump et al v. Evers, et al (case not assigned (Milwaukee County)

This afternoon, pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 9.01 et seq., we filed Notices of Appeal from the Recount in Dane County and Milwaukee County conducted from November 20-29, 2020 on the Verified Petition for Recount of Donald J. Trump and Michael R. Pence in accordance with an Order of the Wisconsin Election Commission. A copy of the notices of appeal are enclosed. Pursuant to the statute, the appellant will post "an undertaking and surety in the amount approved by the court" and is prepared to post cash as provided in Wis. Stat. 895.345 to such amount and in such amount as the court may approve.

Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 9.01(6)(b) we respectfully request that you "appoint a circuit judge, who shall be a reserve judge if available, to hear the appeal."

In order to avoid any delay, we respectfully request the appointed judge hold a "scheduling conference" (Wis. Stat. § 9.01(7)(b)) on Friday, December 4, 2020 at Saturday, December 5, 2020 to set the briefing schedule and set a schedule. Matters to be addressed in that scheduling conference include our need not be limited to, the date for filing a complaint, filing an answer, pretrial briefings of fact and conclusions of law, submitting record evidence, providing supportive legal memoranda, oral arguments, if any, and final order. Given the time frame in which the election for President appellants will be prepared to submit their complaint, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, the record evidence and legal memoranda on Monday, December 7. As the evidence and other matters to be addressed are limited to those raised at the Boards of Canvassers, completion should be expeditious.

Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,
TROUPIS LAW OFFICE

In 1897 in Louisiana, 130,344 Blacks (44% of the electorate) were registered to vote.

By 1900 that number dropped to 5,320 (4% of the electorate).

With voter participation rates up in 2020, we must be vigilant and ready to fight modern day #VoterSuppression attempts.

Thoughts--> The safe harbor deadline is Tuesday. Alito might simply want to rule and deny the motion by Tuesday, so as not to have mooted out the relief with the Wednesday date that he set. He may have realized that he had to have defendants file their response before he ruled.

Justice Alito bumps deadline up from Wednesday to Tuesday in Mike Kelly's baseless lawsuit. Kelly's case was brought in state-- not federal court

The Supreme Court must NOT interfere in an election that ended 33 days ago.

> Greg Stohr @GregStohr
> UPDATE: Justice Alito seems to have had second thoughts: The response is now due Tues, Dec 8 at 9 a.m., rather than Wed, Dec 9 at 4 p.m. It's now plausible the court will act by the Dec 8 safe harbor deadline.

This is a 9-0 waiver case. The Supreme Court rejects countless cases on waiver every term. It's probably one of the most common ways to lose at the appellate level.

This case isn't remotely a close call on that issue; pltfs appear to have waived strategically + on purpose.

Long Strange Trip @LSTrip44 · 9 Std.
Not sure what that means precisely but it sounds like SCOTUS will reject this?

Judges are working crazy hours in this era. But the Michigan order was quick and simple & issued earlier today at 1:37 pm.

A good example of a judge who never rests is Judge Lucy Koh --see our case involving the #2020Census. She issued this decision in at 2:28 a.m. PST!!

Yesterday, I learned that we will be administering the #COVID—19 vaccine in our urgent care in weeks. More details to come, but it feels surreal - from caring for the initial onslaught of patients last spring to now helping to ameliorate human suffering through vaccinations.

I'm also thinking about the conversations that I'll be having with patients who will be coming in requesting the vaccine. I'm curious to hear their own stories about how the pandemic has impacted their lives and their thoughts about the vaccine.

This language from Trump is outrageous. He has spoken with disdain about African and Caribbean nations throughout his presidency. I interpret his reference to a "third world country" as a further attack on the value and dignity of Black voters and voters of color.

> "It was a rigged election, if you look at the different states the election was totally rigged, it's a disgrace to our country, it's like a third world country these ballots pouring in from everywhere, using machinery that nobody knows ownership, nobody knows anything about, they have glitches as they call them, glitches, the glitches who aren't glitches," he said.

Labor Sec'y Eugene Scalia, son of the late Justice Scalia, has put in place regulations that give federal contractors the green light to use religion as a pretext to unlawfully discriminate.

We should brace for more extremist and unlawful policy shifts in the days ahead.

Pennsylvania election results

🚨NEW: The Supreme Court will soon hear a case concerning a core provision of the Voting Rights Act- Section 2 which applies nationwide and is the primary weapon against discriminatory voting tactics. This Justice Dept. has weighed in with a brief that would weaken this provision concerns can be "avoid[ed]" by giving defendants "leeway to state and explain the valid interest served by their policies." Id. at 540-541. Considering such interests as part of the totality of the circumstances helps to focus liability on the types of "'artificial, arbitrary, and unnecessary barriers'" imposed on minority voters, id. at 544 (citation omitted), that are most likely to reflect discriminatory intent despite their facial neutrality, see Ricci, 557 U.S. at 695 (Scalia, J., concurring).

Second, "interpreting disparate-impact liability * * * expansive[ly]" risks encouraging defendants to "use[] and consider[]" race "in a pervasive and explicit manner," raising additional "serious constitutional questions." Inclusive Communities, 576 U.S. at 543. If a "statistical disparity" alone established disparate-impact liability, defendants would be forced to subordinate legitimate governmental interests and to gerrymander practices to achieve racial proportionality, including by adopting measures to achieve "'numerical quotas'" that "tend to perpetuate race-based considerations rather than move beyond them." Id. at 542-543 (citation omitted). This Court's Section 2 vote-dilution cases also have expressed concerns about construing the statute to require excessive consideration of race in ways that undermine its purpose. See, e.g., Strickland, 556 U.S. at 18, 21 (plurality opinion); Johnson v. De Grandy, 512 U.S. 997, 1016-1017 (1994). To "avoid" those questions in other contexts, the Court has imposed "[a] robust causality requirement." Inclusive Communities, 576 U.S. at 542. A plaintiff cannot prevail simply by identifying a "statistical disparity" but must "point to a defendant's policy or policies causing that disparity." Ibid.

It's time to END racial segregation in NYC.

The City's long-standing lottery system which sets aside affordable housing units for people already living in the surrounding community perpetuates segregation. We are fighting back. @LawyersComm @T_Silverstein

REAL ESTATE

A NATIONAL CIVIL RIGHTS group is backing a lawsuit that alleges New York City's longstanding policy of guaranteeing 'community preference' in the affordable housing lottery is unlawful. The Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law filed a proposed amicus brief Monday in support of the lawsuit, filed by the Anti-Discrimination Center, that alleges the policy perpetuates racial segregation in housing. The practice, which dates back to the 1980s, reserves half of the apartments deemed affordable in a given development for people already living in the surrounding community district. The Lawyers' Committee, founded in 1963 at the request of President John F. Kennedy, wrote in the brief that the city's arguments in support of the policy, if upheld, would represent a significant setback for fair housing protections. POLITICO's Janaki Chadha

🚨BREAKING: Michigan Supreme Court REJECTS another case brought by Trump allies who were upset with the Board of State Canvassers for certifying the election.

Another BASELESS suit tossed by the Courts. We will continue to weigh in on these cases until all are put to rest.

December 9, 2020

162286 & (3 of 5)(6)(9)(10)

ANGELA C. JOHNSON and LINDA LEE TARVER, Petitioners,

v SC: 162286

SECRETARY OF STATE, CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD OF STATE CANVASSERS, BOARD OF STATE CANVASSERS, and GOVERNOR, Respondents.

On order of the Court, the motions for immediate consideration are GRANTED. The petition for extraordinary writs and declaratory relief is considered, and it is DENIED, because the Court is not persuaded that it can or should grant the requested relief. The motions to intervene are DENIED as moot.

CLEMENT, J. (concurring).

I concur in the Court's order denying the relief sought in the complaint. Indeed, I do so in large part due to the legal authority cited by Justice VIVIANO in dissent. It is undeniable that the legal authority in this area has not been the subject of much discussion, and therefore there is little caselaw on point. However, there are many seemingly apparent answers—many of which are discussed at some length by Justice VIVIANO—and when these answers are combined with the defects in petitioners' presentation of their case, I do not think it is an appropriate exercise of this Court's discretion to prolong the uncertainty over the legal status of this election's outcome. Thus Court routinely chooses not to hear cases which raise interesting and unsettled legal questions in the abstract when we conclude the case would be a poor practical vehicle for addressing those questions—which is my view of this case and these questions. Moreover, I believe it would be irresponsible to continue holding out the possibility of a judicial solution to a dispute that it appears must be resolved politically.

I think it is important at the outset to have a basic understanding of how elections in Michigan work. On Election Day, votes are cast. Once Election Day is over, the votes in each race are then counted at the precinct level. See MCL 168.801(1) ("Immediately at Black women are woefully underrepresented on our nation's courts.

5 of 179 federal appeals court judges and only 42 of 673 district court judges are Black women.

In a very brief order, the court says Texas lacks Article III standing to sue other states over how they conduct their own elections. In layperson's words: a state has no valid interest, under the Constitution, in attempting to police other states' voting procedures.

ORDER IN PENDING CASE

155, ORIG. TEXAS V. PENNSYLVANIA, ET AL.

The State of Texas's motion for leave to file a bill of complaint is denied for lack of standing under Article III of the Constitution. Texas has not demonstrated a judicially cognizable interest in the manner in which another State conducts its elections. All other pending motions are dismissed as moot.

Statement of Justice Alito, with whom Justice Thomas joins: In my view, we do not have discretion to deny the filing of a bill of complaint in a case that falls within our original jurisdiction. See Arizona v. California, 589 U. S. ___ (Feb. 24, 2020) (Thomas, J., dissenting). I would therefore grant the motion to file the bill of complaint but would not grant other relief, and I express no view on any other issue.

Shortly after the Supreme Court's order rejecting the Texas election challenge, the court denied a request to delay the federal government's execution of Alfred Bourgeois. Bourgeois' claim was based on intellectual disability. Sotomayor & Kagan dissented. supremecourt.gov/opinions/20pdf …

ALFRED BOURGEOIS v. T. J. WATSON, WARDEN, ET AL.

ON APPLICATION FOR STAY AND PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT

[December 11, 2020]

The application for stay of execution of sentence of death presented to JUSTICE BARRETT and by her referred to the Court is denied. The petition for a writ of certiorari is denied.

JUSTICE SOTOMAYOR, with whom JUSTICE KAGAN joins, dissenting from the denial of certiorari and application for stay.

The Federal Death Penalty Act (FDPA) provides that "a sentence of death shall not be carried out upon a person who is mentally retarded." 18 U. S. C. §3596(c). The Court today allows the execution of Alfred Bourgeois to proceed even though Bourgeois, who has an IQ between 70 and 75, argues that he is intellectually disabled under current clinical standards. I would grant his petition to address whether the FDPA prohibits his execution.

The District Court in this case applied currently prevailing diagnostic standards to find that Bourgeois had made a "strong showing" that he is intellectually disabled. See

This is an extraordinary case. 🚨BREAKING: Federal court REJECTS another Trump lawsuit seeking to overturn results in Wisconsin. Despite #SCOTUS ruling, there are still a few cases cluttering the courts. We will keep fighting back to ensure that courts fully dispose of these meritless suits. @LawyersComm

DONALD J. TRUMP,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 20-cv-1785-BHL

THE WISCONSIN ELECTIONS COMMISSION, ET AL.,

Defendants.

DECISION AND ORDER

This is an extraordinary case. Plaintiff Donald J. Trump is the current president of the United States, having narrowly won the state of Wisconsin's electoral votes four years ago, through a legislatively mandated popular vote, with a margin of just over 22,700 votes. In this lawsuit, he seeks to set aside the results of the November 3, 2020 popular vote in Wisconsin, an election in which the recently certified results show he was defeated by a somewhat narrow margin of just over 20,600 votes. Hoping to secure federal court help in undoing his defeat, plaintiff asserts that the defendants, a group of some 30 Wisconsin officials, violated his rights under the "Electors Clause" in Article II, Section 1 of the Constitution. Plaintiff seeks upon three pieces of election guidance promulgated by the Wisconsin Elections Commission (WEC), a creature of the Wisconsin Legislature that is specifically authorized to issue guidance on the state election statutes, and argues that the guidance, along with eleven officials' conduct in reliance on that guidance, deviated so significantly from the requirements of Wisconsin's election statutes that the election was itself a "failure."

Plaintiff's requests for relief are even more extraordinary. He seeks declarations that defendants violated his Constitutional rights and that the violations "likely" started more than Quite shocking. My Scottish son is a professor at an American university and his students call him "Dr" via his PhD. His cousin is also "Dr" via his medical degree. Epstein writes misogyny in bold capitals.

We (@lawyersomm) presented argument to the court at Thursday's hearing.

Trump's attorney argued a ruling against him would rank in the annals of legal history among Brown v. Board of Ed. & Loving v. Virginia.

As we noted: this was "patently offensive."

First, I'd like to know how often Sen Lindsay Graham is calling Justice Roberts for legal opinions.

Second, seems like this could be grounds for recusal.

Third, this raises all kinds of Congressional ethics issues.

Finally, the independence of the judiciary is under attack.

A reminder that @FBI Director Christopher Wray stated that white supremacists are the greatest domestic terror threat in our country.

Kristen Clarke @KristenClarkeJD
Proud Boys, white supremacists, and Trump supporters rip a #BlackLivesMatter sign down from Metropolitan AME church in D.C. During the Jim Crow era, they burned crosses. Today they seek to terrorize by targeting Black churches.

There's something really disturbing when those seeking to suppress the vote try to use the Voting Rights Act as their weapon. Glad that Judge Lisa Godbey is not buying it. Woodhttps://www.politico.com/news/2020/12/18/judge-skewers-gop-georiga-suit-448547

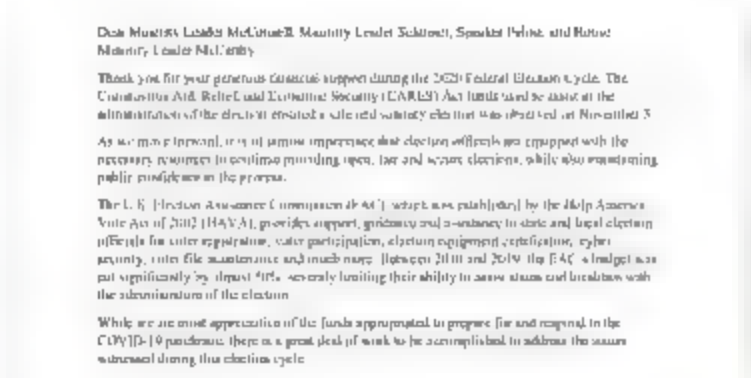
Yesterday I was proud to join with 15 of my colleagues from both sides of the aisle to call on Congress to fully fund @EACgov. It is vital to our democracy that we ensure election workers have the resources and funding they need to do their jobs effectively and efficiently.



Dear Majority Leader McConnell, Minority Leader Schumer, Speaker Pelosi, and Republican Minority Leader McCarthy:

Thank you for your generous financial support during the 2020 Federal Election Cycle. The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act funds used to assist in the administration of the election cycle will be reported on November 3.

As we move forward, it is of prime importance that election officials are equipped with the necessary resources to continue providing open, fair and secure elections, while also maintaining public confidence in the process.

The U.S. Election Assistance Commission (EAC) budget was established by the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA), provides support, guidance and assistance to state and local election officials for voter registration, voter participation, election equipment certification, cyber security, voter file maintenance and much more. Between 2010 and 2019, the EAC's budget was cut significantly by almost 40%, severely limiting their ability to assist states and localities with the administration of the election.

While we are most appreciative of the funds appropriated to prepare for and respond to the COVID-19 pandemic, there is a great deal of work to be accomplished to address the issues witnessed during this election cycle.

Therefore, as the chief election officials of our respective states, we encourage prompt funds be allocated in the CAA, for fiscal year 2021 for various initiatives including, but not limited to:

a) Conducting a comprehensive post-election review with a special focus on procedures implemented due to COVID-19
b) Improving the security and auditing of election systems;
c) Implementing a robust training program available to all election officials nationwide;
d) Assembling a team of experts to research and establish non-voting technology best practices and resources to better assist voter registration systems and other elections

Hunger and food insecurity on the rise.

But the #StimulusBill includes a provision that allows for 100% tax write-off on business meals -- a perk that benefits corporate executives.

Congress's latest Covid relief and omnibus spending bills are a mash-up of special favors for teachers unions, the booze industry, wind power, race horses, and so much more. There's even a bailout for Broadway; take a bow, Chuck Schumer. But for a sign of the political times, and how far Congress has strayed from basic economic logic, you can't beat the return of the full business meal deduction.

President Trump has been pushing this for months, and Treasury Secretary Steven Mnuchin made it a priority in negotiations. Perhaps Mr. Trump recalls fondly the days when real-estate and other executives could write off lunch or dinner at the 21 Club. Go ahead and order that Clos de Tart 2005. You can write it off. In the 1970s this became known as the "three-martini lunch" deduction when Jimmy Carter campaigned against it. The full deduction finally went away during the Reagan tax reform in the 1980s.

Now the deduction will return "for food or beverages provided by a restaurant" for the next two years through the end of 2022. The claim is that this will help struggling restaurants revive after the pandemic ends by giving businesses an extra incentive to leave the office for lunch. The estimated cost is $6 billion in forgone tax revenue, which is spare change for Congress this year.

This is bad tax policy now or any time. Restaurants have suffered during the pandemic, especially in states like New York with overly strict lockdowns. But they won't be revived by a tax deduction for lunch. They'll revive as the pandemic fades and the public feels safe enough to return. No business people we know make a lunch decision for tax reasons, and corporations don't need another tax code carve-out.

This isn't Covid relief. It's a political favor for a specific industry. But why restaurants, and

This is #DijonKizzee, 29 yrs old and shot and killed by LA Sheriffs after being stopped for a bike violation. Cops handcuffed his lifeless body. While police investigations can drag on for months/years, cops have already claimed he ran away, and dropped clothes and a gun. #BLM

This is the same department that shot and killed #StephonClark in his grandmother's backyard.

Trump has raised over 207M since Election Day pushing his false claims of election fraud. Virtually every lawsuit has FAILED and post-election protests have resulted in racial violence, including attacks on Black churches. It's time to put the myth of vote fraud to rest.

Tired of officials attributing candidate losses this election season to calls for policing reform.

Police shootings of unarmed Black people are not new - it is a long, intractable crisis that stems back decades.

Bold advocacy and new ideas open a path forward for the country.

Trump has finally signed the #COVIDrelief bill but not without exploiting the moment to push his FALSE and fully misplaced claims about vote fraud.

Also there is NO evidence that the "House and Senate have agreed to focus strongly on the very substantial voter fraud..."

> I am signing this bill to restore unemployment benefits, stop evictions, provide rental assistance, add money for PPP, return our airline workers back to work, add substantially more money for vaccine distribution, and much more.
> On Monday the House will vote to increase payments to individuals from $600 to $2,000. Therefore, a family of four would receive $5,200. Additionally, Congress has promised that Section 230, which so unfairly benefits Big Tech at the expense of the American people, will be reviewed and either be terminated or substantially reformed.
> Likewise, the House and Senate have agreed to focus strongly on the very substantial voter fraud which took place in the November 3 Presidential election.
> The Senate will start the process for a vote that increases checks to $2,000, repeals Section 230, and starts an investigation into voter fraud.
> Big Tech must not get protections of Section 230!
> Voter Fraud must be fixed!
> Much more money is coming. I will never give up my fight for the American people!

The Proud Boys have made Hotel Harrington in D.C. their unofficial headquarters when inside the nation's capitol. The hotel just announced that they will CLOSE January 4th-6th.

Other entities that profit by providing safe haven to extremist and violent groups should follow suit.

Senator Josh Hawley is setting up a potentially chaotic situation that will NOT change the outcome of the election. What is most troubling is Hawley's call for Congress to essentially adopt #VoterSuppression laws at the back end of this.

> Hawley Statement On Objecting During Electoral College Certification Process on Jan. 6
> "Following both the 2004 and 2016 elections, Democrats in Congress objected during the certification of electoral votes in order to raise concerns about election integrity. They were praised by Democratic leadership and the media when they did. And they were entitled to do so. But now those of us concerned about the integrity of this election are entitled to do the same.
> "I cannot vote to certify the electoral college results on January 6 without raising the fact that some states, particularly Pennsylvania, failed to follow their own state election laws. And I cannot vote to certify without pointing out the unprecedented effort of mega corporations, including Facebook and Twitter, to interfere in this election, in support of Joe Biden. At the very least, Congress should investigate allegations of voter fraud and adopt measures to secure the integrity of our elections. But Congress has so far failed to act.
> "For these reasons, I will follow the same practice Democrat members of Congress have in years past and object during the certification process on January 6 to raise these critical issues."

What Hawley fails to mention is the Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity/"Voter Fraud" that Trump created in 2017 found NO evidence of widespread fraud in the 2016 election.
Dem/Rep members will have their own spin on the commission:

Senator Josh Hawley is setting up a potentially chaotic situation that will NOT change the outcome of the election. What is most troubling is Hawley's call for Congress to essentially adopt #VoterSuppression laws at the back end of this.

> "Following both the 2004 and 2016 elections, Democrats in Congress objected during the certification of electoral votes in order to raise concerns about election integrity. They were praised by Democratic leadership and the media when they did. And they were entitled to do so. But now those of us concerned about the integrity of this election are entitled to do the same.
> "I cannot vote to certify the electoral college results on January 6 without raising the fact that some states, particularly Pennsylvania, failed to follow their own state election laws. And I cannot vote to certify without pointing out the unprecedented effort of mega corporations, including Facebook and Twitter, to interfere in this election, in support of Joe Biden. At the very least, Congress should investigate allegations of voter fraud and adopt measures to secure the integrity of our elections. But Congress has so far failed to act.

Senator Sasse confirms that he will NOT participate in effort to obstruct the January 6th confirmation of the electoral college vote.

Senator Ben Sasse
11h

WHAT HAPPENS ON JANUARY 6th

In November, 160 million Americans voted. On December 14, members of the Electoral College – spread across all 50 states and the District of Columbia – assembled to cast their votes to confirm the winning candidate. And on January 6, the Congress will gather together to formally count the Electoral College's votes and bring this process to a close.

Some members of the House and the Senate are apparently going to object to counting the votes of some states that were won by Joe Biden. Just like the rest of Senate Republicans, I have been approached by many Nebraskans demanding that I join in this project.

Having been in private conversation with two dozen of my colleagues over the past few weeks, it seems useful to explain in public why I will not be participating in a project to overturn the election – and why I have been urging my colleagues also to reject this dangerous ploy.

Every public official has a responsibility to tell the truth, and here's what I think the truth is – about our duties on January 6th, about claims of election fraud, and about what it takes to keep a republic.

1. IS THERE A CONSTITUTIONAL BASIS FOR CONGRESS TO DISMISS ELECTORAL COLLEGE VOTES?

Yes. A member of the House and the Senate can object and, in order for the vote(s) in question to be dismissed, both chambers must vote to reject those votes.

But is it wise? Is there any real basis for it here?

Absolutely not. Since the Electoral College Act of 1887 was passed into law in the aftermath of the Civil War, not a single electoral vote has ever been thrown out by the Congress. (One goofy senator attempted this maneuver after George W. Bush won reelection in 2004, but her anti-democratic play was struck down by her Senate colleagues in a shaming vote of 74-1.)

2. IS THERE EVIDENCE OF VOTER FRAUD SO WIDESPREAD THAT IT COULD HAVE CHANGED THE OUTCOME OF THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION?

No.

For President-Elect Biden's 306-232 Electoral College victory to be overturned, President Trump would need to flip multiple states. But not a single state is in legal doubt.

NEW- Judge Kernodle dismisses Rep Gohmert's baseless lawsuit against Pence seeking to obstruct the outcome of the #2020Election. Court finds Gohmert has NO standing and court lacks jurisdiction over his "claims"

These suits make a mockery of our democracy and our justice system.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
TYLER DIVISION

THE HONORABLE LOUIE GOHMERT, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

THE HONORABLE MICHAEL R. PENCE, in his official capacity as Vice President of the United States, Defendant.

Case No. 6:20-cv-660-JDK

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

This case challenges the constitutionality of the Electoral Count Act of 1887, as codified at 3 U.S.C. §§ 5, 15. The Court cannot address that question, however, without resolving that it has jurisdiction. See, e.g., U.S. Const. art. III, § 2; Gray v. Curtis, 44 U.S. 230, 245 (1845). One crucial component of jurisdiction is that the plaintiffs have standing. That requires the plaintiffs to show a personal injury that is fairly traceable to the defendant's allegedly unlawful conduct and is likely to be redressed by the requested relief. See, e.g., U.S. Const. art. III, § 2; Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560–61 (1992). Requiring plaintiffs to make this showing helps preserve the limited role of federal courts in our constitutional system.

The problem for Plaintiffs here is that they lack standing. Plaintiff Louie Gohmert, the United States Representative for Texas's First Congressional District,

A fundamental, defining feature of a democratic republic is the right of the people to elect their own leaders. The effort by Sens. Hawley, Cruz, and others to overturn the results of the 2020 presidential election in swing states like Pennsylvania directly undermines this right.

"I just want to find 11,780 votes, which is one more than we have.." Trump to Raffensperger during call intended to pressure him to rig the election outcome.

This is not normal.
nytimes.com/2021/01/03/us/ …

Jan. 3, 2021 Updated 2:47 p.m. ET

WASHINGTON — President Trump demanded that Georgia's Republican secretary of state "find" him enough votes to overturn the presidential election, and vaguely threatened him with "a criminal offense," during an hourlong telephone conversation with him on Saturday, according to audio excerpts from the conversation.

Mr. Trump, who has spent almost nine weeks making false conspiracy claims about his loss to President-elect Joseph R. Biden Jr., told Brad Raffensperger, the state's top elections official, that Mr. Raffensperger should recalculate the vote count so Mr. Trump would win the state's 16 electoral votes.

"I just want to find 11,780 votes, which is one more than we have," Mr. Trump said on the call, a recording of which was obtained by The Washington Post, which published excerpts from the audio on its website Sunday. "Because we won the state."

Mr. Raffensperger rejected the president's efforts to get him to reverse the election results, which are set to be certified by Congress during a session on Wednesday. Some of Mr. Trump's allies in the House and the Senate have said they will object to the results of the elections in several states, including Georgia.

BREAKING: We are suing the Proud Boys and their members for the racist attack on Metropolitan AME church in Washington DC. This attack was one of several levied against churches targeted for their support of the Black Lives Matter movement.

The Proud Boys are NOT above the law.

PROUD BOYS INTERNATIONAL, L.L.C.

ENRIQUE TARRIO

Defendants

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal Church ("Metropolitan AME" or the "Church") is a historic Black church in the heart of Washington, D.C. It brings this suit against the Proud Boys, its leadership and certain of its members for engaging in acts of terror and vandalizing church property in an effort to intimidate the Church and silence its support for racial justice. The conduct of the Proud Boys in Washington, D.C. on December 12, 2020 amounted to a new and dangerous chapter in the long and terrible history of white supremacist mob violence targeting Black houses of worship.

GEORGIA: No voter should be turned away at the polls. If your name is not on the rolls, contact our Election Protection hotline ASAP at 866-OUR-VOTE/866-687-8683. At minimum, show this letter and demand a provisional ballot which you are entitled to if in a federal election.

Brad Raffensperger
214 State Capitol
Atlanta, GA 30334

RE: Request to Remind County Election Superintendents, Poll Managers and Poll Workers of Provisional Ballot Requirements Prior to the January 5, 2021 Run-Off Election

Dear Secretary Raffensperger,

We write to remind you, on behalf of the NAACP and the NAACP Georgia State Conference, that under federal and Georgia law, voters contending they are eligible to vote are entitled to cast a provisional ballot.[1] Both federal and Georgia law clearly provide that voters must be allowed to vote a provisional ballot when the voters are denied a regular ballot because of a challenge or other questions about the voters' eligibility to vote.[2]

To avoid the potential disenfranchisements of eligible Georgia voters by the denial of their right to cast a provisional ballot as a last resort in response to a challenge or other questions to their eligibility, we request that the Secretary remind poll workers and other election officials that if a voter contends they are eligible to vote and is not permitted to cast a regular ballot, the voter must be provided with a provisional ballot if they swear or affirm their eligibility to vote.[3]

In order to avoid any poll worker or election official confusion, we request that the Secretary remind county election officials, poll managers and poll workers that:

- Under federal law, if an individual declares that such individual is a registered voter in the jurisdiction in which the individual desires to vote and that the individual is eligible to vote in an election for federal office, but the name of the individual does not appear on the official list of eligible voters for the polling place or an election official asserts that the individual is not

Here are Henry Tarrio's (aka "Enrique") charging documents following his Monday arrest in D.C.

All members of the Proud Boys who have wreaked havoc and mob violence should be held accountable for their toxic and dangerous actions.

On January 4, 2020, Defendant Henry TARRIO was arrested pursuant to Superior Court Arrest Warrant 2020 CRW 005553, which relates to the December 12, 2020, burning of a Black Lives Matter banner belonging to Asbury United Methodist Church.

Following Defendant TARRIO's arrest, members of the Metropolitan Police Department inventoried Defendant TARRIO's property and recovered two (2) high-capacity firearm magazines. Given his previous lawsuit, as pictured below.

The events and acts described above occurred primarily in the District of Columbia, and were committed as described by defendants listed in the case caption.

AG Barr,

I understand that you are itching to find evidence of voting irregularities and fraud.

Meet Richard Hopkins who LIED about mail-in ballots being backdated. He used a GoFund Me page to raise 136,000 following promotion of these lies. He has recanted.

What say you?

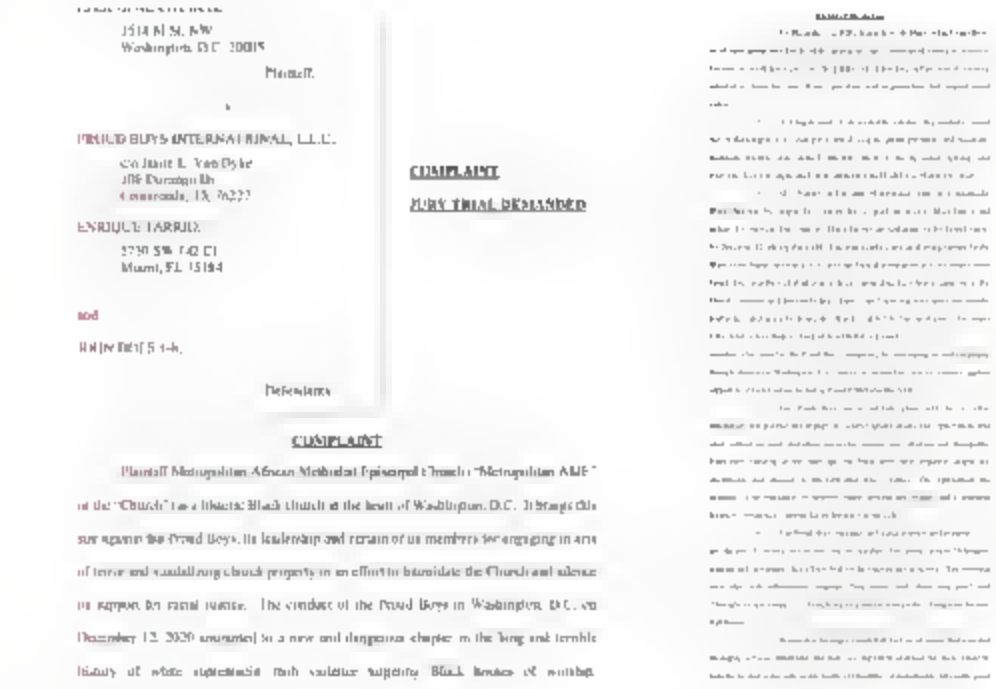
BREAKING: We are suing the Proud Boys and their members for the racist attack on Metropolitan AME church in Washington DC. This attack was one of several levied against churches targeted for their support of the Black Lives Matter movement.

The Proud Boys are NOT above the law.



PROUD BOYS INTERNATIONAL, L.L.C.

ENRIQUE TARRIO

Defendants

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal Church ("Metropolitan AME" or the "Church") is a historic Black church in the heart of Washington, D.C. It brings this suit against the Proud Boys, its leadership and certain of its members for engaging in acts of terror and vandalizing church property in an effort to intimidate the Church and silence its support for racial justice. The conduct of the Proud Boys in Washington, D.C. on December 12, 2020 ushered in a new and dangerous chapter in the long and terrible history of white supremacist mob violence targeting Black houses of worship.

Despite lawsuits, data, the reports and the protests, Bloomberg stood by stop and frisk.

In 2013, a federal court found the policy unconstitutional but Bloomberg didn't budge, stating "I wouldn't want to be responsible for a lot of people dying."

Many are still raw from this.

It's important to remember that stop and frisk was also an incredibly ineffective policy that did little to address public safety.

We analyzed every stop between 2009 and 2012 when I was with the the @NewYorkStateAG. Of 2.4M stops, a mere 6% led to arrests.

> Supporters and opponents of the practice agree that only 6% of all stops result in an arrest. Yet until now, no known study has sought to assess what happens following those arrests. By analyzing close to 150,000 SQF arrests* from 2009 through 2012 (out of the approximately 2.4 million stops conducted during those years), this report offers new data on the outcomes of the NYPD's stop-and-frisk practice.
> The report's key findings include the following:
> - Close to half of all SQF arrests did not result in a conviction;
> - Fewer than one in four SQF arrests—or 1.5% of all stops—resulted in a jail or prison sentence;
> - Just one in fifty SQF arrests—or about 0.1% of all stops—led to a conviction for a crime of violence;
> - Just one in fifty SQF arrests—or about 0.1% of all stops—led to a conviction for possession of a weapon; and
> - Almost one quarter of SQF arrests (24.7%) were dismissed before arraignment or resulted in a non-criminal charge such as an infraction or a violation at the time of arraignment.

More than the others did on the Maryland case. Ask @KristenClarkeJD. There is a major sense of urgency. If no settlement is reached, the federal appeals court renders their opinion. So I'll take any recognition of this case.

Truth. We need every candidate who cares about HBCUs speaking up about this case. A federal court found that Maryland violated the constitution back in 2013 and now they MUST remedy the harm.

Call @GovLarryHogan (410-974-3901) and tell him his 200M funding proposal is insulting.

A senior DOJ official accessed porn, sexually explicit videos and images and stored the content on 2 DOJ computers.

The senior official resigned after getting caught by OIG but taxpayers have a right to know who this is.

Tips welcome.

(202) 514-3435 | oig.justice.gov

INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY

Findings of Misconduct by a Then Deputy Assistant Attorney General for Misuse of DOJ-Issued Computers and for False Statements

The Department of Justice (DOJ) Office of the Inspector General (OIG) initiated an investigation upon receipt of information from the employing DOJ division alleging that a then Deputy Assistant Attorney General (DAAG) had been observed viewing sexually explicit images on the DAAG's government computer.

The OIG investigation substantiated the allegation that the then DAAG viewed sexually explicit images on the DAAG's government computers, in violation of DOJ policy. An OIG forensic examination of two DOJ computers issued to the DAAG determined that the computers contained data regarding numerous sexually explicit website searches, visits to websites hosting sexually explicit videos, sexually explicit search engine terms, and sexually explicit images. The OIG investigation also substantiated that the DAAG made false statements under oath to the OIG. During the DAAG's initial OIG interview, the DAAG denied accessing or viewing sexually explicit websites or material from a government computer. In a follow-up interview, after being confronted with the preliminary results of the OIG forensic examination, the DAAG ultimately admitted to the OIG that the DAAG may have intentionally accessed pornographic websites using government computers. The DAAG resigned before the investigation concluded.

Criminal prosecution of the DAAG was declined.

The OIG has completed its investigation and provided a report to the DOJ employing division and to the DOJ Office of Professional Responsibility for their information.

How is this still a question?

Pantaleo has faced no jail time. At minimum, he should be barred from ever wearing anyone's badge and gun.

The solutions to reducing gun violence are clear. GOPs MO is clearly to give as little as they can after each mass shooting, tho they could do it all at once this week. Instead they choose to make Americans earn safe gun policy bit by bit with each passing heinous terror act.

CCRB Statement on Verdict in Pantaleo Trial

New York, NY – New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) Chair Fred Davie issued the following statement on Friday:

"Today's decision confirms what the Civilian Complaint Review Board always has maintained: Officer Daniel Pantaleo committed misconduct on July 17, 2014, and his actions caused the death of Eric Garner.

"The evidence the CCRB's prosecutors brought forth at trial was more than sufficient to prove that Pantaleo is unfit to serve. Commissioner O'Neill must uphold this verdict and dismiss Pantaleo from the Department, as was recommended by both the CCRB and the Deputy Commissioner of Trials."

Hey @vanitaguptaCR @KristenClarkeJD if a group of workers chanted "send her back" in the lunchroom at a new immigrant colleague would they face sanction under federal law? If a group of men surrounded a woman on the street & chanted it, could they prosecuted for a hate crime?

Look at the children at this rally. They are internalizing the hate. It's not surprising that bullying has spiked 25% based on latest data.

This rally is un-American and disgraceful. Trump is repeatedly using his bully pulpit to incite his base and fan the flames of hatred.

This is key paragraph in the Trump executive order calling for agencies to compile #citizenship data. 👇🏽👇🏽

This whole scheme, Sec'y Wilbur Ross's lies and advocacy by Kris Kobach, Steve Bannon and Thomas Hofeller & more may, largely, have been about 2020 redistricting.

> Fourth, it may be open to States to design State and local legislative districts based on the population of voter-eligible citizens. In Evenwel v. Abbott, 136 S. Ct. 1120 (2016), the Supreme Court left open the question whether "States may draw districts to equalize voter-eligible population rather than total population." Some States, such as Texas, have argued that "jurisdictions may, consistent with the Equal Protection Clause, design districts using any population baseline -- including total population and voter-eligible population -- so long as the choice is rational and not invidiously discriminatory". Some courts, based on Supreme Court precedent, have agreed that State districting plans may exclude individuals who are ineligible to vote. Whether that approach is permissible will be resolved when a State actually proposes a districting plan based on the voter-eligible population. But because eligibility to vote depends in part on citizenship, States could more effectively exercise this option with a more accurate and complete count of the citizen population.

This is a clear attempt to sow confusion and chaos. Hopefully, a court will bar these kinds of statements going forward.

The fight over the citizenship question on the #2020Census is over. Forms are being printed.

It's time for the gov't to focus on ensuring an accurate count.

Donald J. Trump
@realDonaldTrump

The News Reports about the Department of Commerce dropping its quest to put the Citizenship Question on the Census is incorrect or, to state it differently, FAKE! We are absolutely moving forward, as we must, because of the importance of the answer to this question.

What happens if you have an unpaid traffic ticket and you're Black?

Chantelle Glass is strapped to a chair, half a bottle of pepper spray is emptied directly into her face & a bucket of water is dumped on her head. This is unconscionable & vile conduct by Cuyahoga Cty officials.

This mother of 3 was restrained, beaten, and pepper sprayed by county jail officers. She was being held after missing a court date over an old traffic ticket.

The administration now has 2 choices: Attempt to devise a non-discriminatory reason for adding the citizenship question -- that would likely face legal challenge.

Or, focus its full attention and resources on ensuring a fair 2020 Census. It's time to move forward.

Justice Kagan issues a scathing dissent and notes that technology will only hasten the crisis of extreme partisan #gerrymandering that we face.

> The proof is in the 2010 pudding. That redistricting cycle produced some of the most extreme partisan gerrymanders in this country's history. I've already recounted the results from North Carolina and Maryland, and you'll hear even more about those. See supra, at 4–6; infra, at 19–20. But the voters in those States were not the only ones to fall prey to such districting perversions. Take Pennsylvania. In the three congressional elections occurring under the State's original districting plan (before the State Supreme Court struck it down), Democrats received between 45% and 51% of the statewide vote, but won only 5 of 18 House seats. See League of Women Voters v. Penn-

The #SCOTUS could issue a decision shortly on the #2020Census.

If the Court fails to strike the #CitizenshipQuestion, this could jeopardize chances for a fair & accurate count.

It would also let Wilbur Ross off the hook for the lies, deceit and racism surrounding the question.

In January, William Barr vowed under oath at his nomination hearing to meet with civil rights groups to discuss policing reform and DOJ's criminal justice positions. We're still waiting for that meeting.

We stand with our partners in demanding that Barr hold a real meeting now.

Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20530

RE: The Department of Justice's consent decree and criminal justice policies

Dear Attorney General Barr:

On behalf of The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights (The Leadership Conference), a coalition of more than 200 national organizations committed to promoting and protecting the civil and human rights of all persons in the United States, and the undersigned organizations, we write to express our grave concerns with the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ or the Department) views made by some of the undersigned organizations regarding the Department's policies and practices concerning oversight of state and local law enforcement; and 3) outstanding concerns with the directive outlined in the Department's November 7, 2018 memo, "Litigation Guidelines for Civil Consent Decrees and Settlement Agreements."

The Department's Listening Session on Policing Consent Decrees and Settlement Agreements Excludes Key Civil Rights Organizations and Stakeholders.

Hearing from and incorporating the views of the organizations that specialize in protecting rights established by the Constitution and laws of the United States ensures the soundness and efficacy

> Praising the "very fine people on both sides" when torch-wielding white supremacists and antisemites marched through the streets clashing with anti-racist campaigners. Threatening to veto a ban on the use of rape as a weapon of war. Setting an immigration policy that forcefully separates young children from their parents at the border. The deliberate use of xenophobia, racism and "otherness" as an electoral tactic. Introducing a travel ban to a number of predominately Muslim countries. In Nieves v Bartlett, the #SCOTUS rejects a 1st Amendment retaliatory-arrest claim and finds that plaintiff must show officer lacked any probable cause to arrest him to move forward.

Sotomayor's dissent notes increasing value of evidence yielded by smart phones and body cameras.

Such concerns, whatever their merits, are insufficient reason "to change the burden of proof for an entire category of claims." Id., at 594. Besides, more than ever before, an audiovisual record of key events is now often obtainable. Many police departments, for example, equip their officers with body-worn cameras.[4] Smartphones that become video cameras with the flick of a thumb are ubiquitous, creating still more potential records.[5] In this very case, a local news crew captured some of the relevant events on video, and the officers were wearing audio recorders (though neither had turned his on). The majority appears ready to forsake this body of probative evidence, even though it has the potential to narrow factual disputes and avert trials.

Such evidence can be prohibitively difficult to come by in other selective-enforcement contexts, and it may be even harder for retaliatory arrest plaintiffs to muster.[6] After all, while records

Any data on what is causing the disparity? This generous act by Robert Smith will change lives & inspire others to pay it fwd. But we owe it to future gens to reform the system, so acts like these aren't necessary; a good education shouldn't put families in triple-digit debt.

May 14, 2019

John Yang, Executive Director
Michael J. Ryan, Executive Director
Board of Elections in the City of New York
32 Broadway, 7th Floor
New York, NY 10004

Dear Messrs. Lavarone and Ryan,

We write regarding our concern that the Board of Elections in the City of New York's plans for in-person early voting for the city's 5,180,155 registered voters fall far short of multiple best practices and may violate state and federal law. On April 30, 2019, the Board announced that each New York City voter would each be assigned to one of only a total of 56 early voting sites, including only seven sites in Queens, the Bronx, and Manhattan, and ten sites in Brooklyn. This total number of early voting sites is inadequate, and their distribution across and within the boroughs will impose a severe burden on many of the City's low-income voters, particularly those who work long or inflexible hours and face transportation challenges, who are disproportionately Black or Latino residents.

We urge the Board to take immediate steps to ensure that its implementation of early voting complies with state and federal law and achieves its purpose of meaningfully expanding access to the franchise for all New Yorker City voters. Critical steps include increasing the number of early voting sites available to each New York City voter, locating additional early voting sites in minority communities to ensure equitable access for all voters regardless of race, color, ethnicity, or national origin, and making the early voting implementation process transparent to maximize public confidence in elections. The Mayor's office has made clear that this will be a public hearing and potential polling locations are available as the Board to meet the needs of all New York City voters. We stand ready to assist the Board in fulfilling its statutory and constitutional obligations and to hold the Board accountable if it does not. New York City's election systems and its new early voting systems in particular must be prepared for the unprecedented turnout expected for the 2020 elections.

* * * * *

Election Law § 8-600 provides for "at least one early voting polling place for every full increment of fifty-thousand registered voters in each county." With the conspicuous exception of Richmond County, no New York City borough comes close to meeting that threshold, due in large part to the Board's [illegible]

Both the Police and the Black man were wrong. The Police were definitely wrong for mistakenly identifying this man. BUT, the man could have quickly de-escalated the situation by showing his ID and ending this altercation. Being wrong & ALIVE is much better than being RIGHT & dead

Trump continues to move at lightning speed to stack the courts with nominees, many of whom are radical and outside the legal mainstream. He's turning the clock back on judicial diversity.

Meet several of today's new nominees. The Senate MUST not rubber stamp & fully vet them all

The Supreme Court is on a perilous path.

We have 5 Justices who will abandon precedent and not be faithful to the principle of stare decisis.

Justice Breyer issued a dissent that makes clear the jeopardy that we are now in. He asks "which cases the Court will overrule next"?

It is one thing to overrule a case when it "def[ies] practical workability," when "related principles of law have so far developed as to have left the old rule no more than a remnant of abandoned doctrine," or when "facts have so changed, or come to be seen so differently, as to have robbed the old rule of significant application or justification." Casey, 505 U. S., at 854–855. It is far more dangerous to overrule a decision only because five Members of a later Court come to agree with earlier dissenters on a difficult legal question. The majority has surrendered to the temptation to overrule Hall even though it is a well-reasoned decision that has caused no serious practical problems in the four decades since we decided it. Today's decision can only cause one to wonder which cases the Court will overrule next. I respectfully dissent.
